Placer Democrats Dedicate Funds to Prevent Child Abuse 2007 Calendar Money Helps Families.

AUBURN, CA – Placer County Democratic Party Chairman Larry Dubois will give the (CAPCPC) Child Abuse Prevention Council of Placer County $800 from monies earned selling calendars highlighting 2006 Democratic campaigns.

The presentation is Monday March 26 at 9:30 a.m. at The Child Abuse Prevention Council, 218 Estates Drive, Roseville, CA 95678. CAPC Executive Director DeAnne Thornton will accept the donation with CAPC Director of Fund Development Donna Wood present. "We are honored that the Placer County Democratic Central Committee has chosen to support our efforts to raise awareness and end the cycle of child abuse and neglect," said DeAnne Thornton, Executive Director, "our work depends on the commitment and contributions of our supporters to achieve our mission."

Referencing CAPCPC's website, DuBois said, "The Prevention Council saves lives and Democrats are proud giving to our community by helping the Council care for approximately 6,000 Placer County children abused every year. The 06 campaign and calendars are memorable, but donating to CAPC is a more lasting memory."

The Placer County Democratic Party Communication Chair Kim Haswell produced We the People Before Politics photo calendars chronicling the 2006 democratic campaigns of Charlie Brown for Congress and Rob Haswell for State Assembly. Said Haswell, "Positive political action should help people and the Child Abuse Prevention Council deserves support. Caring for abused children now stops child abuse cycles and preserves families."
